To: Stockholders of Tresle.ai, Inc.
Subject: Assignment for Benefit of Creditors and Stockholder Distribution

As you are aware, on January 30, 2026, the Board of Directors and stockholders of Tresle.ai, Inc. (the "Company") approved an Assignment for the Benefit of Creditors ("ABC"), pursuant to which the Company assigned its assets to Tresle (ABC), LLC (the "Assignee").

Since the ABC became effective, the Assignee has been carrying out the customary duties and responsibilities associated with administering the ABC estate. Following the claims bar date, the Assignee will review all claims received and, to the extent liquidated proceeds become available, will make distributions on valid claims in accordance with applicable priorities.

At this time, however, the Assignee does not anticipate there will be sufficient proceeds available to make any distribution to the stockholders of Tresle.ai. The administration of the ABC estate remains ongoing, and the Assignee will continue to evaluate potential recoveries and provide updates as appropriate.
